By holding up Moses' hands

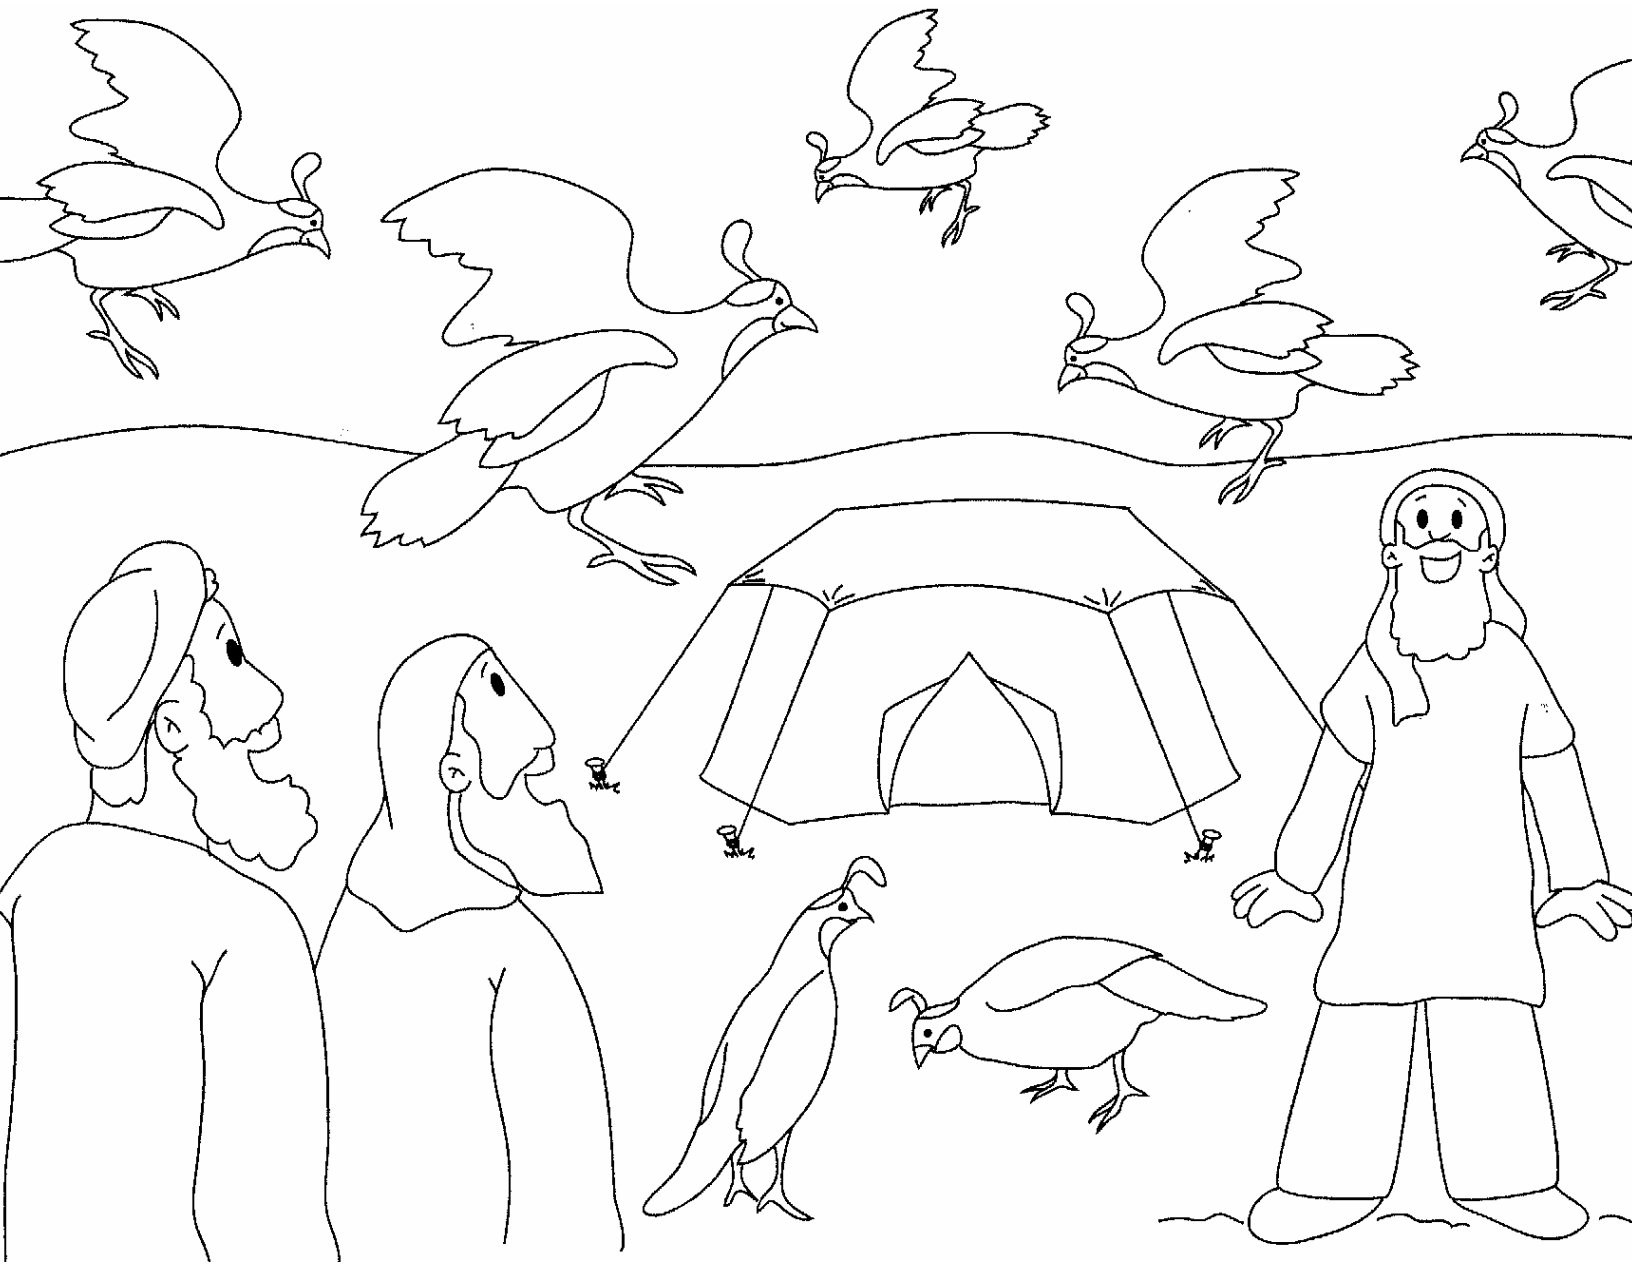

The Israelites made it safely across the Red Sea and the Egyptians chasing them drowned. The Israelites rejoiced and sang a song of praise to God. Moses' sister, Miriam led the women in playing tambourines and dancing.

After giving praise to God the Israelites started a 3 day journey to Marah. The water in Marah was very bitter so they could not drink it. The Israelites began to complain because they were thirsty.

Moses prayed and God changed the bitter water of Marah into good water by telling Moses to cut down a tree and throw it into the water. Now the Israelites had water to drink. God told the Israelites that if they listened to Him and followed God' rules then they would be safe.

Next, the Israelites began to complain because they did not have enough food to eat. God heard the Israelites and sent quail in the evening.

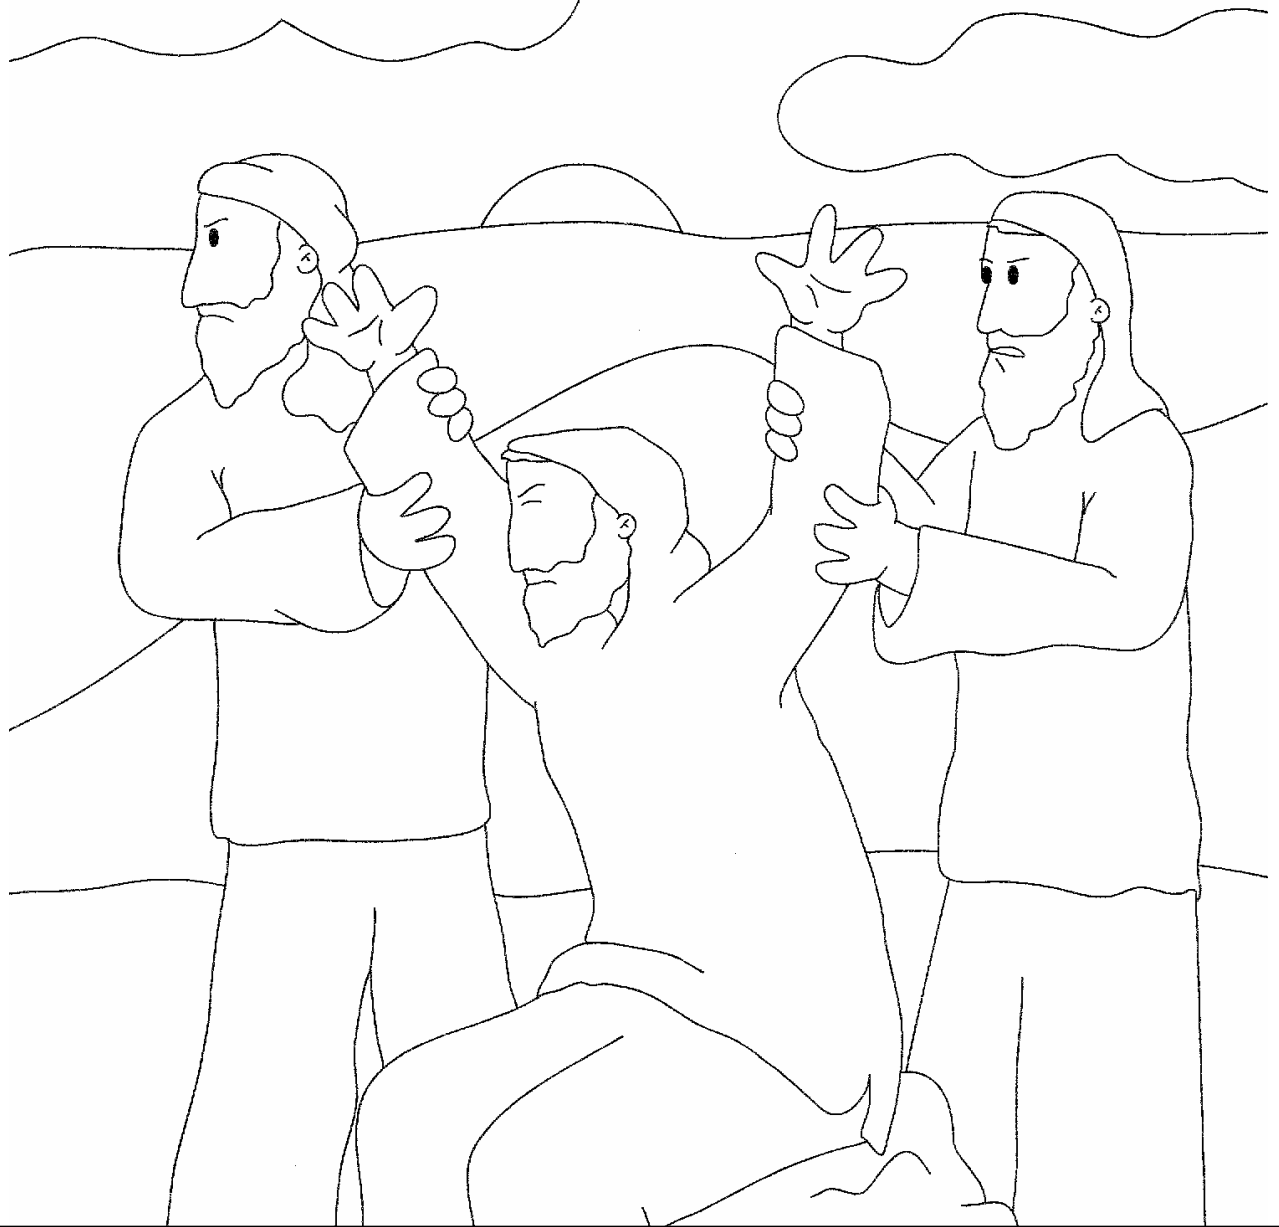

Manna appeared like snow on the ground in the morning. God provided food for the Israelites in the wilderness by sending manna.

God commanded the Israelites to go to Rephidim but there was no water there. The Israelites began to complain again. God told Moses to take his staff and hit a rock. When he did water came pouring out! God performed a miracle for Moses at Rephidim when God brought water from a rock.

While the Israelites were still at Rephidim the Amalekite warriors attacked. Moses stood on a hill to watch the battle and hold up the staff of God. If Moses held his staff up the Israelites started to win, when Moses dropped his hands the Amalekites started to win. After awhile his arms got tired. Aaron & Hur helped Moses gain the victory over the Amalekites by holding up Moses' hands, one on each side of Moses.
